

Guardian Award

Introduction and Application

Introduction: The Guardian award is presented annually, at the National Convention awards banquet, to anyone (Rider or Not) who has made significant contributions in one of the following fields:

- Suicide Prevention
- Selflessly devoted time, effort and resources to the protection of our Veterans.

All nominations begin at AMVETS Riders Chapter and upon completion, should be submitted to the National Secretary by email (ridersns3.kcox@yahoo.com) or mail: AMVETS Riders National HQ, Attn: Karen Cox, 14 Reid Place, Palm Coast, FL 32164.

All properly completed Guardian Award nominations will be prepared and submitted to the Awards Committee for their deliberation. The awards committee will review the nominations, select the winners and announce them to the convention delegates at the National Convention.

Deadline: Submissions must be received by June 15th of each year so that all packages may be prepared for the Awards Committee. Incomplete/incorrect or unreadable nominations will not be considered. After this deadline, on rare exception and with advance notice, Awards committee members may "hand-carry" properly prepared nominations to the convention.

Documentation: All nominations must include page 1–2. The fillable forms and/or attachment(s) must be neatly printed or typed and all additional documentation must be on 8 ½" x 11" paper.

Note: Nominees must be able to attend to receive their award. This information must be verifiable.
